Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months thirteen dollars less than the above named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steerage passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our Splendid Line of Packets; previsions at the rate according to the undermentioned dietary scale; doctor's attendance and medicine on board when required; port charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to any provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each steerage passenger of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day:

Two oz. of Tea, 8 oz. of Sugar; 5 lbs. of Oatmeal; 2½ lbs navy bread; 1 lb. wheat flour; 2 lbs rice.

Children under twelve years of age (not including infants,) are furnished with six pounds of bread stuffs per week, the usual allowance of water, and half allowance of Tea and Sugar.

As soon as our Liverpool House informs us per steamer of the names of pre-paid passengers embarked, we publish their names in the Boston Pilot, and also notify each purchaser of pre-paid certificates, either directly or through our agents.

On the arrival of any of our ships in the outer harbor, we immediately dispatch an agent on board, to give pre-paid passengers the necessary instructions regarding their route westward.

Bedding and utensils for eating and drinking, must be provided by passengers; and those going to the Canadas, or Western States, must furnish their own provisions from Boston.

TRAIN & CO., of Boston, inform those who take an interest in the welfare of Immigrants, that as owners of the ONLY LIVERPOOL and BOSTON LINE OF PACKETS, they have determined that their immigration business shall be conducted in their own name, and under their responsibility and by themselves or their immediate servants.

In calling public attention to the subjoined list of the Ships which comprise our Boston Line of Packets, we believe it is a general reputation of the first of America Lines is sufficiently well known and established. The Thousands of Letters which have been sent by American Immigrants to their friends in every part of Europe, have borne ample testimony to the rapid and successful passages made by those Ships, and to the superior Health, Comfort and Safety which their Passengers have hitherto enjoyed. Many of them will be recognized as vessels which have gained the very highest character, by a succession of unusual rapid passages.

Packet Ships which are dispatched in this LINE:

STAR OF EMPIRE,	"	Capt. BROWN,
WESTERN STAR,	"	THAYER,
FRANK PIERCE,	"	MARCY,

DANL WEBSTER,	"	HOWARD,
PLYMOUTH ROCK,	"	CALDWELL,
SUNBEAM,	"	PUTNAM,

These Ships, when in the Line, sail from Boston on the 5th of each month, and from Liverpool each week during the year, and are distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Diamond.

OFFICES:

Enoch Train & Co., Nos. 37 and 38 Lewis Wharf, Boston, Massachusetts.

Train & Co., Merchants, No. 5 India Buildings, Water St., Liverpool.

Train & Co., Passage Office, Nos. 116 & 119, Waterloo Road, Liverpool, Eng.

Train & Co., No. 21 St. Patrick Street, Cork, Ireland.

These magnificent Ships are ALL AMERICAN BUILT and constructed expressly for Packets. They are all new and of the FIRST Class, being built on the most improved principles and of the best materials. They possess all the modern improvements which contribute to health and comfort, as a superior system of lighting and ventilating, the very best Provisions, and a careful medical superintendence.

The Captains have been carefully selected as first-rate sailors and men of humanity, and an experienced Surgeon is attached to each Ship, and no expense is spared to render this the best and most popular conveyance to America. As Train & Co. have made such arrangements in Liverpool as will PROTECT their friends from the frauds and impositions sometimes practiced there, they believe that those who pre-pay passages cannot but see the advantage of taking the line to engage with a Respectable House, on favorable terms, for a well known Line of Magnificent Packet Ships, and in this way avoid the disrespect, annoyance and delay which they so often experience, when they engage with Agents who are but slightly connected with transient Ships.

As a proof that their Immigration business is conducted on principles of uniformity, honesty and humanity, and that they have been distinguished for the most exact fulfilment of all their engagements, we are permitted to refer to the very Rev. TEOBALD MATHEW, Cork, Ireland, to the following testimonial from the Right Reverend JOHN BERNARD FITZPATRICK, D. D., Bishop, Cathedral, Boston.

NOTICE TO BUSINESS MEN.

The circulation of the DAILY SENTINEL is by far the LARGEST of any daily paper published in the State; and presents greater advantages to Merchants, Mechanics and Advertisers as a medium of advertising.

The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of over two thousand copies, which is constantly and rapidly increasing. Advertisements put in the Weekly at the same rates as in the Daily.

Advertisements appear in the Tri-Weekly Sentinel without additional charge.

Price of the Daily $6 00, of the Tri-Weekly $3,00 and of the Weekly $1 00 per year, payable in advance.

NEBRASKA MEETING.—The meeting at Young's Hall last evening, to protest against the Nebraska outrage, was very large, entirely harmonious and most emphatic and determined in the expression of its sentiments. The Hall, spacious as it is was filled with earnest and intelligent participators in the proceedings; men of all parties, adopted as well as native citizens, uniting in it.

Mr. JOHN B. SMITH presided, assisted by Dr. WENDELL and F. J. BLAIR, as Vice Presidents, and A. H. BIELFELD and N. A. MILLER, as Secretaries. Eloquent and appropriate speeches were made by Messrs. HOLTON, YATES, MERRILL, BIELFELD and other gentlemen, and a series of strong resolutions adopted against the bill. We shall endeavour to publish a full account in our next.

Land Grants to Rail Road Companies.

We publish this morning a communication from Mr. LYMAN KILBOURN making a specious argument in favor of Land Grants to R. R. Companies, and urging various considerations why Milwaukee should support, rather than oppose the pending applications in Congress for such grants. We have neither the time, nor the space to-day to review these arguments at length, or to show why and wherein we think they fail to sustain Mr. KILBOURN's position. To the general policy of Land Grants for Rail Road Companies, we have already and repeatedly declared our opposition; and Mr. KILBOURN's article has not altered the belief that these grants are objectionable in principle and injurious in practice; that they belong to the worst class of special legislation; that they rarely help the favored Companies to the degree expected, and that they almost invariably prove a curse, instead of a benefit to the localities in which and the improvements for which, they are made. And we think that the very "experience," to which Mr. KILBOURN appeals—the experience of our own State—refutes instead of sustaining his argument.

One part of Mr. KILBOURN's communication we cannot consent to publish without a brief reply. Not content with urging his side of the question, he undertakes to impugn the motives of those who take the opposite view. Quite conscious of his own disinterestedness, above the suspicion of being influenced by any improper or unworthy motives, and too well satisfied of his own infallibility, to believe for a moment that there can be either right or reason on the part of those who differ with him, he civilly attributes the opposition of the Sentinel, Free Democrat and News, to Land grants, to "local, personal and political considerations." Now, we submit that Mr. KILBOURN lives in altogether too brittle and transparent a glass house to throw stones after this fashion. Where we can, by any possibility, have a single motive of the sort, for opposing Land Grants, he has a dozen for advocating them. A great deal of money may be made and, as Mr. KILBOURN possibly knows, has been made, by individuals or companies who have obtained Land Grants, but we have yet to find the first man who filled his purse by opposing them. And considering that Whigs, Democrats and Free Soilers occupy different sides of this Land Grant question, we marvel that it did not occur to so sagacious and successful a politician as Mr. KILBOURN, that it could not in any way be turned, or twisted, to party account. Lastly as to the "local" specification, there is every reason why we should favor the speedy construction of all the Rail Roads leading out of, or into, this city, as also the means and measures for expediting the good work, but no imaginable motive for throwing obstacles or, even "straws" in their way. As to the Rock River valley road, we have no other wish or feeling in reference to it, than that it may be honestly managed, and cease to be, as it has been for a year or more past, a standing reproach to the whole state.

INGENIOUS, TO SAY THE LEAST.—The Democratic Secretary, published at Sheboygan, is one of the very few papers in this State which justifies the attempt of a few reckless politicians, in and out of the Legislature, to forestall the action and wishes of the People in the matter of electing a U. S. Senator. Among other reasons for the contemplated wrong, the Secretary ingeniously gives the following:

> The Legislature is now strongly Democratic and would undoubtedly choose a Senator from that party, who would give general satisfaction, at least as much so, as one that might be chosen next year. Local and other questions may arise, before another election, which will change the political complexion of the next Legislature, while a large majority of the people remain Democratic.

The contingency of which the Secretary speaks is certainly a possible one. But to guard against it effectually our present Legislature, being "strongly democratic," ought either to declare itself "in permanence," and thus save the People the trouble of electing another, for some years to come, or else proceed to choose United States Senators for two or three terms ahead. We think the latter plan probably the easiest, and that it might be made to satisfy three or four Senatorial aspirants, as thus: elect Wm. A. BARROW to succeed Senator WALKER; ex-Gov. DEWEY to succeed ex-Gov. DODGE, and A. HYATT SMITH and JOHN B. MACY, for the next brace. This would surely anticipate any such accident as a change in the "political complexion of the Legislature," and we move to amend the Secretary's plan accordingly.

Nebraska Bills---Spirit of the Press.

The Columbus Reporter (Dem.) endorses the strong denunciation of the Watertown Register, thus:

> "The following from the Watertown Register shows up in their true light the pettifogging propensities of the "Little Giant"—the small-pox to giant of Illinois."

The Elkhorn Reporter (Dem.) says:

> "The nation wants rest, quiet. Why then must we have this agitation, and that in favor of slavery too? There is for this even far less excuse than upon the other side, for we all admit slavery to be an evil.
> What could be Judge Douglas' motive for such a move? Is it a bid for the Presidency? Does he expect to make himself popular by countenancing an aggressive war upon freedom? Upon free territory in favor of slavery? Will the democracy endorse such a move as this? Will not even the chivalric South be disgusted with such doughfaceism? We prize the blessing of free territory too high to give countenance to such a move. We regard the attempt to remove the impediment to slavery in that territory as sacrilegi."

The Whig and Free Democratic presses of this State are unanimous in their opposition to the bill. Of the democratic papers, the Banner, Wisconsin and Volksfreund of this city; the Times of Ozaukee; the Jeffersonian, at Jefferson; the Sentinel, of Green; the Standard, of Rock; the Reporter, of Walworth, and its namesake of Columbia, and the Register at Watertown, have declared against the bill. The News of this city, Democrat, of Kenosha, ditto of Madison, and the Courier, at Oshkosh, are for it. The Sheboygan Journal wants to "wait and see." We think the Legislature cannot doubt what the true sentiment of the State is, and should not hesitate to give it speedy and manly utterance.

Land Grants for Railroads.

Messrs. Editors:

The following paper, read this morning to the Board of Trade, was not designed for your columns when writing; but as it is a criticism on the policy recommended by you, on the important subject of land grants to railroads, and a brief argument in favour of such grants, I have concluded to avail myself of a suggestion made to me, and herewith send it to you for the purpose of giving it to the public for what it is worth. It not being originally written for your papers, will explain why they are spoken of in the third person.

It is curious to observe how frequently some keen-sighted people overleap the mark, and, like the dog in the fable, grasping at a shadow, "lose the substance of their aim."

I have never seen a more forcible and striking illustration of this tendency in men, than is exhibited in the opposition made by three of our leading journals, (the Sentinel, Free Democrat and News,) to grants of land by Congress for the improvement of the western country, by aiding in the construction of railroads. They seem determined that Congress shall not make any appropriations of land, to aid those monopolies, as they are termed, (the railroad companies,) in building railroads; and equally determined that Congress shall, nolens volens, grant those lands free of price, for the purpose of occupancy and settlement. This policy, they urge, on the ground that to grant those lands to railroad purposes, will keep them out of market, and retard the settlement of the Country; while to grant them to settlers, will promote that settlement.—In this proposition there is one truth, and one error. But the misfortune of it is that the true part proposes an impracticable abstraction—an unattainable good—as the legislation of Congress for 30 years, has clearly shown; while the error (not perhaps an unusual one) makes an assumption, the reverse of all our experience in the western country; and which if acted upon by us Milwaukeeans, as a people, will lead to the most injurious consequences.

Grants of land for internal improvements have never been found to retard the settlement of a country, but just the reverse is true, witness Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, &c. Where these grants have been most liberal, the increase of population and wealth has been most rapid. There is no inconsistency in grants of land to railroads, and in free grants to actual settlers. And therefore, it is not necessary to oppose the one, in order to promote the other. Both these measures, if pressed by the advocates of both, would certainly result in some good; for if either singly, or both together, could be adopted, great good would flow from it. But if we cannot obtain both, then let us secure the greatest amount of attainable good, by accepting either, let that be which it may.

We, of Milwaukee, have a very important end to gain in the early completion of the several lines of railroads from this point; and we ought to leave no fair and honorable means unemployed to accomplish that end. We will not throw one straw in the way of the free grants of land to actual settlers, but on the contrary do all we can to secure such grants; and while we will do this, we will urge upon Congress the importance of aiding the settlement of our State, by encouraging the building of railroads, and lending the aid of Government in the shape of donations of land for that purpose.

There is one important view of this subject which the opposers of railroad grants have overlooked, but which very nearly concerns every tax payer in the State. It is this. These grants, if made, will be made to the State, for the use of railroads; but not to the Railroad Companies direct. In transferring these lands to the Companies, the state will stipulate that a certain part of the roads earnings, shall be paid to the state annually, forever. If these grants be large, they will furnish a revenue sufficient to pay the whole expense of the State, and thereby exempt every man's property from taxation for state purposes. The grant made by Congress to the State of Illinois for the Central Railroad, has been transferred by the State to the Company, on terms which will secure to the State, some Two Hundred Thousand dollars a year, as soon as the road is completed; and an increasing amount yearly, as long as grass grows and water runs. This will be a sum sufficient to pay all the expenses of the State, and will put an end to direct taxes on every kind of property for State purposes. Is this not a very desirable result? The same result can be obtained in this State, if we will act unitedly in obtaining grants of land for railroads, as they have done in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, Arkansas, and all the Western and Southern States.

What good end do we gain by opposing such grants? Can we expect thereby, to prevent all the other States interested therein, from obtaining them? Certainly not—The whole country is aroused on this subject, and grants of this kind will be made in every direction, for the benefit of every portion of the great West, excepting only Wisconsin, if her citizens are weak enough to refuse them. But Wisconsin, as a state, I trust is not yet proposed to adopt so suicidal a policy.—Milwaukee now, as in times past, presents the anomaly of furnishing within herself, the elements of hostility to her own interests. The remainder of the state however will be to wise to follow our lead, even if we should see fit to adopt such a ruinous policy. And if even the state were weak enough to follow so unwise an example, no other part of the great west would sympathize with her and she would be left alone to regret her want of foresight and mourn her folly.

While we should be vainly crying to Congress to grant our lands to actual settlers, we should have the daily mortification of seeing foreign capitalists purchase them at Government price, with land warrants, on speculation, and of seeing the settlement of the country retarded, or laid under tribute to such speculators. Instead of securing grants for the benefit of settlers, we should compel those who wish to settle among us, to pay the increased price of those lands to non-resident proprietors, who contribute nothing to the improvement of the country. But if these same lands be granted to Railroad Companies, they would be sold as rapidly as possible in order to obtain the means of building the roads; and for the purpose also of furnishing business to the roads when built; which can only be done by the early settlement of the country. Railroads bring into the country, not only men, but money; and they furnish the most rapid means of settling a country, that has ever yet been devised; and it matters little to the country, at what price the lands may be sold, because the money paid for them is immediately expended in the country to pay laborers for work on the roads, or to the farmers, artizans &c. for supplies, whereby the capital is retained in the country for its own benefit, instead of being sent away to pay for land, either to the General Government, or to foreign speculators, as has been always done since the settlement of the country, and as will continue to be done, unless the land can be secured for the purpose of building Railroads. The whole country participates in the benefits to flow from all such grants, directly and indirectly, and consequently the more extensive the grants, the greater the benefit.

If Wisconsin does not wish to participate in the advantages to be derived from these grants, she can refuse to do so, but she cannot deprive other states of those benefits. If the Sentinel and Democrat and News, suppose they can influence other communities or the action of Congress in this behalf, they will find themselves greatly mistaken. The whole West is moving; nay, the whole country is moving, in favor of using the public land for useful purposes; and the resistance of these papers to the sweeping rush of public sentiment, would be as ineffectual as an attempt to arrest the floods of the Mississippi with paper dams.

Nor is it certain that these papers will be able to convince the country of their disinterestedness, in the course of policy which they recommend. It is strongly suspected that local, personal and political considerations, enter largely into their motives. It has been hinted that hostility to the R. R. V. U. R. R. has much to do with their recommendations on local grounds—that hostility to Messrs. A. Hyatt Smith and Jno B. Macy, has something to do with at least one of them, on personal grounds; and the desire to be foremost in taking possession of the public mind on a topic, which might be expected to occupy a prominent place as a popular measure, may have had its influence on political grounds. It is a pity, that such considerations should be permitted to enter into great questions of public interest; and that the permanent welfare of whole communities, should be jeopardized, through the differences and jealousies of men growing out of petty rivalries.

Members of Congress are neither deaf nor blind, and there are plenty of avenues open to them, by which they are able to judge somewhat of men's motives; and I have but little doubt that the war here waged on land grants, will be more likely to be referred to local and personal, rather than to patriotic motives. And the only practical result, likely to flow from it, will be to ensure more certainly, the passage of the act granting land to the R. R. V. U. R. R. and the defeat of those grants designed to advance the interest of roads leading from Milwaukee.—The argument is a short one. If Milwaukee does not desire aid from the Government, the Government will not force it upon her, but her hostility to other works of high public interest, will not receive a favorable response. Milwaukee opposition to the Valley Road, will only the more certainly insure for it a grant of land; while Milwaukee opposition to all grants will be the certain means of defeating all grants in which Milwaukee is most deeply interested. We will not be tolerated in the attempt to injure other parts of the State; but we may be tolerated, and perhaps assisted in the determination to damage ourselves. Let us therefore beware in time, and if any of us have signed remonstrances against land grants, let us at once correct the error by signing petitions in their favor.

Milwaukee, Feb. 11th, '54. B. K.

Ex-Senator Clemens.

The Albany Atlas contains a letter from Hon. J. Clemens, Ex-Senator from Alabama, to John Van Buren, in which he speaks quite freely upon the excitement of 1850, the Compromise, &c. We take from it the following paragraph as evidence that some Southern men foresee the storm which will inevitably follow the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

> I am too much engaged with professional duties to pay much attention to politics, but I think I have seen enough to be certain that the Nebraska bill, as reported by Mr. Douglas, will pass, and I think I can foresee the consequences. That they will be anything but agreeable scenes too clear to admit of a doubt. A flood-gate will be opened, and a torrent turned loose upon the country which will sweep away in its devastating course every vestige of the Compromise of 1850. I do not speak of its immediate effects—I look beyond. For the present it may be looked upon at the South as a boon, and by a portion of the North as a triumph over fanaticism. The word peace will be upon the lips of its advocates everywhere. Like the Angel of the Lord who stood among the myrtle trees and said, "We have passed to and from through the earth, and behold all the earth sitteth still and is at rest"—even so we shall have it proclaimed that the country is at rest—that all is peace—but I greatly fear that they will soon find they have raised a spirit which will wing its way through storm and tempest to the funeral pyre of the Republic.

Mr. Burlingame's Speech on the Mississippi Valley.

The following are the closing words of Mr. Burlingame's lecture upon the Valley of the Mississippi, which were received with such favor last Wednesday evening at the Mercantile:

> At the time of the adoption of the Constitution there was not one State in the Valley of the Mississippi; now more than one third of the States of the Confederacy are there, containing nearly one half of the people of the Republic. Six of them are dedicated to freedom—six are lost to slavery. Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee, on the confines of freedom, may yet cast out the evil. Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana have a dreary prospect before them. No settler will set his feet in them. Civilization flees their borders and imagination has filled them with monster Legrees. The slave States, though first settled, linger in the rear. They have had political power—they have supplied three Presidents—they have been the adopted homes of the statesmen who have added to the renown of the Republic. They are even now behind in population, and of the thousands of miles of Railway built in that Valley, not one-fifth of them are within their borders.
>
> They have expended for these purposes in round numbers $18,000,000 against $123,000,000 by the free States. They hold the key points of the valley, the mouths of the great rivers, and yet the annual product of the free State of Ohio, four years ago, was within a few millions of the annual product of these six States. I would not make invidious comparisons, but I would let the trumpet of freedom speak to the revelations of the census tables.
>
> The free States, young, crowded into the upper part of the valley, in all those things which give a people abiding strength, are their superiors. These are now the granaries for all lands—they control the mighty commerce of four hundred millions belonging to the West; they supply the 20,000 men who navigate it; they rejoice in labor, and their valleys glitter with free schools.
>
> The settlers of the Mississippi valley, chiefly supplied from the Atlantic States, have generally followed the parallels of latitude upon which they were born. There is the Carolinian, ready to fight for his peculiar institution, and, in the language of his Congressman, to "march up to the line of 36 30 with his coffin on his back." There is the haughty Virginian, yet eloquent of the fading glories of the old Dominion—there is the true son of New England, still proud of the land of his birth. This great Northern brive of New England has swarmed again and again, and from its own bosom, and through the energetic veins of Western New York, has given its sons and its aith to the upper valley of the Mississippi.
>
> The States of the North-West are bone of her bone and flesh of her flesh. A New-England man—John Adams—at the treaty of Paris, by his firmness saved that region to the country: when it was proposed to yield it, he with his Puritan pluck said No! Rather than do so he would go home and fight for it as long as he could keep a soldier in the field. It was a New England man who procured the reduction of the price of the public lands, and for this the poor man should bless him;—it was a New England policy which dedicated every 16th section of land to school purposes;—and above all, a New England man—Nathan Dane of Beverly, Massachusetts—drew up the Ordinance of 1787, excluding slavery forever from that Territory.
>
> New England men assembling in this city to name their plans, sent forth from the County of Essex in this State, in the dreary month of December, a little colony and first settled what is now the great State of Ohio. A New England man was the first settler of the North-West Territory. New England men were its first Judges. They were the controlling element in that legislature, which, when Virginians petitioned for the right to take their slaves into that territory, unanimously rejected their petition. And how there is a land larger than the N. West Territory—larger than the free States, excluding California—lying under the latitudes of liberty, blest with the best waters of Heaven, drained by the finest rivers in the world, waiting the advent of one hundred millions of freemen, dedicated to liberty by the plighted faith of patriots from the North and the South, and a New England man, cradled in Vermont, matured in the North West under the smiles of freedom, forgetting the mother that bore him, ungrateful to the land of his adoption, in the Senate of the United States, in the face of the world, with hot haste, when no man prayed for it by petition, seeks to abrogate the language by which it has been given to freedom, the language of the glorious old ordinance of 1787, originally from the mind of the author of the declaration of independence, and to doom it to the woes and agonies of slavery.
>
> In the name of the poor man whose heritage it is, I protest; in the name of humanity, I protest. Let the declaration go forth from old Faneuil Hall; let it rise from every section of the republic; from the land of Henry to the land of Adams; from the tomb of Jefferson to the tomb of Jay; from the grave of Calhoun in the sweet shade of the magnolia blossoms; from the generous soil of old Kentucky, which wraps the manly form of Henry Clay; from these shores by the sounding sea, where the great New England statesman is laid down to rest; let the declaration go forth; let it ring from side to side; by every gushing river; by every wind beaten hill; by every shining mountain—Nebraska shall be free!—Boston Traveller.

SKETCHES OF THE IRISH BAR—2 VOLS.—Members of the Bar and lovers of amusing anecdote will find pleasant reading in these two neatly printed volumes, from REDFIELD's publishing house, New York, by the late RICHARD LALOR SHEIL, with a memoir of the author and notes by R. S. MACKENZIE. They are for sale, with other late publications, at ARNOLD & WILSON'S, East Water Street.

TRADE AND COMMERCE OF BUFFALO.—We are indebted to JOHN J. HENDERSON, commercial editor of the Buffalo R public, for a pamphlet copy of his very full, accurate and interesting annual statement of the Trade and Commerce of Buffalo for 1853. Mr. HENDERSON is fully "posted up" on all commercial matters, and is an invaluable "help" to the Republic.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. STONE, formerly one of the Telegraphic operators in the O'Rielly office in this city, for a bundle of late California papers. Mr. STONE has been nearly two years in California, and returns in good health and spirits and rather pleased with his experience. He brings good reports of various Badgers in the Gold Diggings.

A DAILY PAPER AT OSHKOSH!—We received last night the first number of a neat little three column paper, called the Oshkosh Daily Courier, published by READ & NEVITT. It is rather small but decidedly smart, and will grow apace. Success to both paper and town.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE. Mr. BEAN has disposed of his interest in the Waukesha Independant Press to Mr. D. CASEY, by whom it will in future be conducted.

For the Sentinel

"Hot Corn," per Contra.

Messrs. Editors:—Since reading the article of your correspondent of last week ("Gazelle") we have perused "Hot Corn Life Scenes in New York," and arrived at very opposite conclusions.—We do not consider the objections based upon reason or philosophy, or the deductions at all warrantable, believing that Gazelle wrote under the spur of impulse, and a "moment's reflection" and not with calm deliberation. Although we confess to have been subject to an unusual share of "moral taint" for many years, and meanwhile perhaps may have witnessed Life Scenes in New York, if truthfully delineated, equally as fruitful and full of struggling light and terrible shadow as those narrated by Mr. Robinson, yet we find the impression left upon our mind after the perusal of his work, not at all demoralizing, and in our opinion, they are not designed "to cater to the vitiated appetite of the depraved." For this latter class there is too much of moral reflection blended with the slimy course of vice, to render its lessons of misery profitable to "a mind diseased." The poet says—

> "Vice is a monster of such frightful mien
> That to be hated, needs but to be seen."

This may not be true, when applied to many of the denizens of the lanes and alleys, garrets and cellars of the "Life Scenes," but those who have had an ordinary share of moral training cannot but appreciate its truth. It is a work written with vigor and correctness, which carries conviction of the author's good intent, and in no instance can we discern a design to pander to the taste of the "depraved million." "To the pure all things are pure," and such can easily distil good out of evil, but the naturally vicious and licentious reprobate need not the sad detail of sin and suffering, so strongly portrayed in Hot Corn Scenes, to prompt to deeds of villainy, while the unsuspecting and confiding may find in them a shield to cover and protect their tottering footsteps. "Where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise" does not apply in this case, but rather, "fore-warned is to be fore-armed."

In it, the bane and antidote go hand in hand and while the language is as unexceptionable as it could well be under the circumstances, we can discover but affected prudery or the old maid's squeamishness, in the endeavor to keep it from the hands of "the virtuous, noble minded and promising youth," in whose integrity we have great confidence, and with whom it were well, if in their unfriendly friction with the world's rough angles, they meet with no more seductive temptation to do evil, than that afforded by a perusal of these truthful Life Scenes. As well might it be said, Benedict Arnold must be unqualifiedly condemned, but his treason be kept in the background, lest the example prove contagious.

How futile then the objection, how unfounded the reasoning, worthy the days of the Puritan and bigot, of the days of Salem Witchcraft and the Blue Laws, when the very Bear barrels were castigated, for not obeying the Sabbath-day Commandment—"Thou shalt not work." And having said thus much in vindication, let us state our objections. While the style is generally forcible and earnest, it is at times lame and flashy, with occasional dashes of egotism, and an improbable thread of connection in the narrative; but we bespeak for it universal attention. Its lessons of temperance, are not the least important, and for them we commend it. The trail of the serpent is disclosed from the incipiency of dissipation—"wine-bibbing and riotous eating of flesh"—to the bitter end, first stupefying, then brutefying, then demonizing, rum and a degraded death closes the miserable scene.

COMMON SENSE.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

"Hear Both Sides."

Germantown, Feb. 13, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—I saw an article in your paper of the 9th inst., in regard to the supposed poison case in Germantown, reflecting severely upon me as a public officer, which I deem justice to myself and duty to the public to explain, and give the truth in the premises. A messenger came to my house, and found that I was absent, and being informed that I would return in a short time, he waited until I returned. After making his business known to me, I informed him it would be impossible for me to hold an inquest that night on account of a prior engagement. I informed the man where he could find another Justice, nearer the deceased than I was, and if he saw fit could go and see him. But, as for my refusing to hold an inquest upon the body, or assigning any other reason than the one above stated, is a mistake, to say the least, let it come from what source it may.

I had not the least doubt in my mind, as to the meaning of the statute in the above case, nor was not at a loss to know how to proceed; and if those men who deal in medicine in the city of Milwaukee understand their business as well as I do mine, we shall have no more cases of poisoning in these parts from strychnine.

Yours &c. J. P. VAUGHAN.

COMPLIMENTARY FESTIVAL.

The Complimentary Dinner, tendered by the Produce-dealers, Forwarders, Merchants and Business-men of Milwaukee to the proprietors of the Sentinel, came off, according to appointment, on Saturday afternoon, at "The Home." Some sixty gentlemen were present; Mr. HENRY WILLIAMS presiding, assisted by Judge HUBBELL, and CHAS. H. WHEELER, officiating as Vice President with His Honor, Mayor WALKER, as a supporter. The dinner was served in BELDEN's unequalled style, and in the matter of meat and drink included everything that the most exacting epicure could desire. Among the invited guests present, were Dr. JUDD, of Dodge county, Messrs. BOOTH, SHAW and SHEPARD, of the City Press, and other gentlemen from within and without the State.

After the removal of the cloth, Judge HUBBELL, in behalf of the President, proposed a highly complimentary toast to the proprietors of the Sentinel, which he prefaced with an earnest and eloquent speech. Both speech and toast were most kindly received by the Company and were responded to, according to their ability, by the senior and junior partners, in person, and by our absent associate in an excellent letter. Messrs. BOOTH, SHAW and SHEPARD were next called up to answer in turn for their respective papers, which they did by very cordially endorsing the compliment paid to the Sentinel, and by expressions of great kindness and good will towards its proprietors. Then followed a very sparkling fire of speeches and sentiments, interspersed by some good singing from Dr. BARTLETT, Col. WALKER, Mr. WILLIAMS and Mr. SHEPARD, and kept up with great vigor and to the general enjoyment, till half past 10 o'clock.

Among the absent friends warmly remembered on the occasion were HANS CROCKER and ALEXANDER MITCHELL, both of whom were one of town, and among the compliments paid to individuals present, none was more heartily and enthusiastically assented to, than to the worthy host of the occasion, BELDEN of the "Home."

The entertainment passed off most agreeably, leaving with the firm in whose honor it was given a deep and abiding sense of gratitude for this and other substantial tokens of the good will of their fellow-citizens, and the generous fellowship of their contemporaries of the press, and a not less deep and earnest determination to strive by every means in their power to justify the good opinions so flatteringly expressed and to deserve and retain friends so valued and so true.

ST. FALENTINE'S DAY.—This being the day dedicated and set apart to Cupid, those of our readers who may wish to obtain missives appropriate to the occasion will find them, of all sizes, qualities and prices, at ARNOLD & WILSON's and BIRD's.

☞ The thaw "progressed" quite rapidly yesterday forenoon, but in the afternoon the wind shifted to the Northward, the air cooled mightily, and by nighfall there were symtoms of a "freeze."

CITY TREASURER.—Fred. Kuehn announces himself as a candidate for City Treasurer at the coming Charter Election.

Mr. KUEHN has been clerk in the Treasurer's Office for several years past, and has made a good one.

The Proposed County Buildings.

The subject of county buildings seems to me to be of sufficient importance to justify a more extended controversy in the papers. The bill now before the Legislature enables the County to issue bonds bearing 7 per cent. not exceeding $100,000, the money arising from the sale thereof, to be expended in part or whole by a board of three building Commissioners, to be elected by the Board of Supervisors, this board having alone the power to conclude the contract and make choice of the location. So far, I cannot see any objectionable feature in the bill; the people in electing their Supervisors next spring, have a direct opportunity to settle themselves, the question of location, and will no doubt do so. The main question seems to be—Shall the County build this year, or at a later period? It is stated from different sides that, in as much as the taxes are now already oppressive enough, we might get along with our old buildings and await the times, when the growth of population and increased value of property, will have made it an easier task. To this may be replied, that the tax necessary to be levied for covering the interest of the whole amount authorized to be expended, would not reach 1-5 of 1 per cent of the present assessment, and would be hardly felt in a few years, when the increased value of property will reduce it to a mere nominal figure. It is even not improbable that if we succeed in putting up a good building in a good situation, an amount of rent for rooms and offices can be drawn by the County, equal perhaps to at least one half of the interest required annually. Now suppose that the County instead of spending $100,000, needs only $50,000, the remainder being made up, as to all appearance it will be by voluntary contributions, from the result of the desire of different localities to get the buildings; then the tax needed to pay the interest, will be hardly worth mentioning.

There are good reasons however in abundance why we should not delay the erection of County buildings; let me name a few of them. Building is getting more expensive at the rate of from 15 to 25 per cent a year. Lots are advancing in price at the same ratio and the chance for the county to get a donation or to pick out one entire block, does not improve by the times.

What then is to be gained by waiting four or five years; then even the best friend to the present buildings would not give them credit for any longer term. We shall have to build then and it will cost us 50 per cent more, and the shame of the present condition of things is to be born for nothing five years longer.

There is another consideration and though mentioned by me last is to me one of the most important. I refer to the inhuman condition of the jail. Let next summer bring us only middling hot weather and a residence of eight days in the jail will be equal in many cases to sentence of death; the moral improvement there in store is as well known to the community. Do not say by adding one story you can make it serve for some years to come. This would not improve the present cells and would not give room enough neither. The money applied to that is thrown away and will amount to nearly one years interest on the bonds. W.

COMMON COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the Board was held last evening, at which some informal business was transacted, and a resolution adopted memorializing Congress for Land grants to the Lake Shore & La Crosse Rail Roads. The Board adjourned to meet again Thursday evening.

BOARD OF TRADE.—At the adjourned meeting of the Board of Trade, yesterday afternoon, a memorial was reported, asking grants of land for all the Rail-Road enterprises leading out of this city. After much discussion this was modified so as to embrace two roads only, the Lake Shore and La Crosse, and in this shape adopted.

REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING FEB. 14.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, February 14, 1854.

OFFICE OF THE TEMPERANCE LEAGUE,
Milwaukee, Feb. 15, 1853.

The market has fluctuated somewhat during the past week and prices fallen off a little from the highest rates attained. There is still, however, an active demand for all the Grain arriving, at high figures. Good Spring Wheat sells readily at $1,15a1,20, Club and mixed at 1,23a1,25, and good to prime Winter at 1,25a1,30. Barley is in active request at 50a54; Rye at 73a77, and Oats at 30a31.—Pork has sensibly advanced since our last quotations and choice heavy hogs have met with quick sale at 5,00a5,25. Cattle though that the number packed here during the season will exceed 30,000—an increase of fifty per cent over last year.

Various opinions prevail as to the prospects of war and short supplies on the Continent, and the consequent effect upon prices on this side. We have seen no reason as yet to change the opinion frequently expressed in our columns, that war was at hand, and that, in any event, the scarcity of breadstuffs in Europe would ensure a large demand and good prices here, whether diplomacy shall arrest war, or war override diplomacy. Therefore, we think that our Farmers and Produce dealers can safely depend upon an active market and high prices for Breadstuffs till the next harvest. We think too, that the Farmers of Wisconsin should make ample and seasonable preparation to sow spring wheat and other grain as early as the season permits and as abundantly as their means and acres allows.—It will all be wanted for the world's consumption during the next twelve month.

We hear from the country that what winter wheat was put in last fall looks uncommonly well. It has been well covered during the winter and if the spring should be propitious, can scarcely fail to yield abundantly. There is a good deal of grain, of last year's crop, still in the country, though if the roads do not break up unexpectedly, the bulk of it will reach the Lake ports before the opening of navigation.

Business in our city, during the past week, has been rather quiet. Money is not as plenty as could be wished. Real Estate, however, is advancing steadily, and in some parts of the city, rapidly; and, several large transactions have taken place, which we have noted from day to day in our columns.

Our Rail Road enterprises "keep moving," despite a tight money market and the disfavor with which R. R. bonds are now looked upon by many capitalists. Our city has, within a day or two, issued $300,000 additional bonds in aid of the Lake Shore & La Crosse Rail Roads. Several of the Companies are also applying to Congress for Land grants, in aid of their enterprises; but while we wish every success to the roads themselves, we cannot wish success to their applications.

The Winter, thus far, has been highly favorable to health, business, agriculture and Lumbering operations, and our busy, hard-working population have turned it to good account.

We annex our usual Price Current, corrected to date:

TAKING A LADY BY THE NOSE.—The Paris correspondent of the Boston Atlas tells the following true story of Mdlle. Rachel, actress. When in St. Petersburg, in winter, she was out for a drive, and attracted by the splendor of the shop windows, got out of her sleigh and walked from one to another, to inspect the myriad productions of the world of art—objects brought from America, Europe and the snowy steppes of Tartary.—Finally, her attention was attracted by the impertinent stare of an athletic Cossack; the perseverance of his impertinence began to annoy her, and as she was on the eve of attempting to end it, he threw his arms around her, "pinned" her to his breast, and before she could shriek, or demand an explanation, he had taken a large handful of snow, and began rubbing her nose, as if of a sudden he had resolved to destroy the indication of her Jewish descent. A dozen people (which the Russians would call an "immense throng," crowds being exotic in Russia,) were soon collected and stood in the order of their rank in the military hierarchy) around the helpless victim. No one pretended to interfere; for otherwise, (as well as one might detect the expression of countenances that were, where uncovered by beard, buried in furs) they seemed to experience a very lively satisfaction, as if their national pride was gratified by the adroitness of the snow rubber; it was quite evident that he was not at his first nose. After the nose had been sufficiently rubbed, he bowed to Mdlle. Rachel: Mille pardons, Madame," said he, in the purest French; "mais mon Dieu, your nose was freezing, and there was no other way of saving it."

THE SCHOONER WILLIS.—The Courier must be in error in stating that "The Willis cleared from Milwaukee in October last, loaded with grain for this city, and was reported lost with all on board in the severe gale on the week following her departure." She cleared from this port on the 29th day of October, as appears from our marine list, for Chicago. She cleared again from Chicago on the 22d of November, and did not put into Milwaukee at all, and had not since been heard from until about a week since, when a letter was received by Mr. Thomas Clark of this city, from an uncle named Clark, who resides in Canada, about 16 miles from Pentanguishene who had a son on board the Willis. The information which he received from the crew of the Willis, was by a white man and Indians who were carrying the mails from the Sault to Pentanguisheno, and called on him in pursuance of a promise given to Sandy, the mate, and John, a sailor, one of whom is a son, and the other a nephew of the writer of the letter in question and gave him the information which he communicated to Mr. Clark. Mr. Clark has since written to his uncle for further particulars, which he hopes to receive soon. We have these particulars from Mr. James Moore of this city, who had a brother on board the Willis, and has great confidence in the correctness of the information received by Mr. Clark. There is never "sadness, a mystery about the matter well calculated to create doubt. If the vessel is frozen in for the winter, as represented, we cannot understand why the owners who reside here, have not within the two months and a half that she has been missing, had some tidings from her direct. The mail carriers, who bring down the verbal information from Sandy and ——, who might have written a word and forwarded it to Pentanguishene by mail, from whence it could have reached here ——. —Buffalo Express.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—A most painful casualty occurred at Monterey, Monday morning, in Mr. Dustin's water-lime mill. Mr. C. B. Dustin, father of the proprietor of the mill, had raised the gate and let the water upon the wheel, but in consequence of the ice upon it it did not start at once. While it was thus standing, Mr. Dustin took the opportunity to oil some of the machinery, and for this purpose mounted upon a shaft connected with the water wheel. Suddenly the wheel started, Mr. D's feet were caught in some way upon the shaft and he was carried around several times rapidly with it, each revolution dashing his head against a post standing near the shaft, bruising him in a most shocking manner, and of course killing him almost instantly. The deceased was aged about 48 years.—Janesville Gazette.

WISCONSIN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Contracts for grading and bridging the first sixteen sections of the road reaching from the State line to Elkhorn, were awarded on the 23d day of Feb. inst.

The bidding for the work was very spirited and closely contested, there being nearly 50 separate bids for the various sections of the work; and the prices are satisfactory to the Company, being a little below the estimate of the Chief Engineer. A proposition was also received from Chamberlin & Graham to build the entire line to Columbus, and take 1-4 of stock in payment, but the road not being located north of Elkhorn, the committee do not feel justified in closing a contract for the whole line, but have taken the matter under advisement to report upon as soon as the line is located and ready for letting.—Walworth Co. Reporter.

WINTER NAVIGATION.—The little Schooner Union, Capt. Thomas Clark, arrived at this port on Tuesday evening last at 10 o'clock, from Racine, with 50 cords of wood. She left that port the same afternoon at 2 o'clock, thus making the passage in eight hours, with the wind abeam, and blowing fresh. She will leave on her return as soon as the ice is blown away from the west shore. She will carry up some sails, riggings, and other necessaries for new vessels building at Racine.—Chicago Tribune.

"Hard Times—Worse Coming."

The price of flour in this city, is now eleven dollars and a half a barrel, and the probability is it will be still higher before the winter is over. The last advices from Europe have set the flour dealers into a perfect fever of delight and for the time there is more speculation in flour than in Lower Stocks. Everybody wishes he had a few thousand barrels, "and if he hadn't bought that d——d Parker Vein the other day, he would go into a little." It is all very nice, this, for some folks, but is death to others. While one already rich man is adding to his wealth by hundreds of thousands, there are thousands of poor people who turn pale at the thoughts of a "rise in flour." The necessaries of life are every week getting higher, and the cost of living in New York is yearly increasing.

Flour at eleven dollars and a half—potatoes at eleven shillings the bushel, poor and small measure, at that—beef eighteen pence a pound —eggs, four for a shilling—coal, seven to seven dollars and a half a ton—wood twelve to fifteen dollars a cord—and everything else proportionally dear. It is a wonder to us how poor people live at all. Wages and salaries have increased somewhat, but not enough to keep up with the increased cost of existence. Everything is going up, up, up—even paper has advanced some 30 per cent within the last year, and it is a wonder to us how we continue to furnish the weekly Reporter for the ridiculously low price of two dollars a year.—Thompson Reporter.

PROSPECTUS OF

Thos. H. Benton's Great Work.

THIRTY YEARS' VIEW, or the workings of the American Congress from 1820 to 1850. By D. Appleton & Co. New York, and sold exclusively by subscription.

During the last thirty years there has been no important public measure in which this subtle and distinguished statesman has not acted and a conspicuous part, and been familiar with the influences, whether secret or public, which have urged forward or opposed each. He is therefore qualified to write the history of this period.

This work will be completed in two volumes, the first of which will be published early in the year 1854, and will be brought down to the close of the administration of Gen. Jackson, and will thus form a complete work by itself, containing about 700 double column, royal 8 vo. pages, and a superbly engraved portrait of Senator Benton.

Price $3.50, payable on delivery of the book.

The book of subscription, together with specimen sheets, can be found at the law office of Messrs. TUCKER & GARVEY; and the Agent will soon give an opportunity for persons desirous of subscribing to do so at their residences and places of business throughout the city and county. jan12

PREPARED BY

BANGOR, MAINE.

Proof Positive—Skeptics Read.—Testimony! Testimony!!

HAMPDEN, Feb. 24, 1846.

Messrs. J. Curtis, Jr., & Co.—GENTLEMEN,

I have a word to say to you, in favor of Hunter's Cough Syrup. I have the past year used in my practice, two dozen bottles of it, which I find of you, and every bottle has done good. For eight years past, I have been in the practice of Medicine, and I never have found any thing so well calculated to operate so favorably in all diseases of the lungs as this. I have known a hard, distressing cough, cured in forty-eight hours, by using (in broken doses) one bottle of it. One case here in particular, of a man who was thought to have a seated consumption, troubled with a hard distressing cough. I let him have one bottle, and he had two more of your Agent, Mr. Whitmore. After using the 3 bottles, he has become well, and now labors every day. He told me lately, that Hunter's Cough Syrup was the means and only means of his cure. I have given it to infants, to children, to adults, and have the pleasure to inform you that it has done good in every case. I shall do all in my power to recommend it in the cases above named, not wholly for your benefit, but for the benefit of suffering humanity.

BENJAMIN L. POMEROY.
